

The FFC should not implement any proposal that would lessen our current privacy law protections.

The Indiana Privacy Law has improved my time at home by 75%.

I'm not answering the 10-12 calls I was receiving in the day time.

It is now to know that when the phone rings it is not a telemarketer.